

MENTORS

THE 5TH EDITION OF THE YOUNG MEDIA AND COMMUNICATION SCHOLARS MENTORING PROGRAM

dr hab. Anna Jupowicz-Ginalska, prof. UW

Uniwersytet Warszawski

Fields of research: media marketing and media management (media product, price, distribution, people, processes and CI), the impact of new technologies on human life (including FOMO, phonoholism, VR) and media polarization

Number of mentees: 2

Language of mentoring: PL / ENG

Form of meetings: at least one face-to-face meeting per quarter, 2-3 online / face-to-face meetings per month, regular e-mail correspondence and via instant messaging

Frequency of meetings: 2-3/month

ks. dr hab. Rafał Leśniczak, prof. UKSW

Uniwersytet Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego w Warszawie

Fields of research: mediatization of politics, mediatization of religion, public relations, political communication, media ethics

Number of mentees: 2

Language of mentoring: PL / ENG (PL preferred)

Form of meetings: e-mail / remote meetings (Zoom / Google Meet); also available at the UKSW campus (ul. Dewajtis 5, 01-815 Warsaw)

Frequency of meetings: once every 2-3 weeks

dr hab. Andrzej Nowosad

Uniwersytet Jagielloński

obszary tematyczne: Education: PhD in literary studies (Slavic literature, especially Bulgarian, Serbian, Russian), dr hab. political science (political and media systems, media in the political system, media in the systemic transformation of world states / especially the Balkan states, especially former Turkey, Greece and former Yugoslavia, former USSR states, Central and Eastern European states plus Austria, Germany, Switzerland and Great Britain, Israel /, regional literary diversity); MA in economics / 4th year student of 3rd degree studies, Department of Mathematical Economics, Jagiellonian University / currently graduating from PhD in economics - specialization in international economics - labor market / - areas - institutional economics, social economy, labor market (including media workers /, economics media, press market, digital platforms, media market transformations, media convergence in the economic system, transformations of economic and political systems, media and trade clusters / especially the Balkan states, especially former Turkey, Greece and former Yugoslavia, former USSR states, Central and Eastern European countries plus Austria, Germany, Switzerland and Great Britain, Israel /, regional economic diversification); II SUM student of Oriental Philology, Jagiellonian University, Department of Turkology - research areas: Turkish literature, Ottoman literature, Bulgarian Turks' literature, Bulgarian-Turkish political, economic and cultural relations in the process of changes - from 1898 to the so-called revival process (1989) and modern times, Turkish media, Ottoman media, Slavic media of the Ottoman cultural area in the 17th-20th centuries, press history in Turkey, media market in Turkey, women's rights in Turkey, women in literature and in the media in Turkey, a woman in the labor market in Turkey, political and economic transformations in Turkey, the labor market in Turkey, regional differences in Turkey; Certified IPMA project manager, Project management in accordance with the IPMA standard; Academic tutor; Sworn Translator.

(www.andrzejnowosad.com)

Number of mentees: max. 12

Language of mentoring: PL / ANG

Form of meetings: e-mail/online Teams

Frequency of meetings: meetings once a week, once every 2 weeks via MS Teams; places of possible direct meetings: London (England), Edinburgh (Scotland), Sant Andrews (Scotland), Sofia (Bulgaria), Istanbul (Turkey), Tel-Aviv (Israel)

dr hab. Paulina Olechowska

Uniwersytet Szczeciński

Fields of research: media systems theory, Polish media system, regional and local media, media history, media in political communication, research using content and discourse analysis

Number of mentees: 1-2

Language of mentoring: PL / ENG

Form of meetings: dependent on the participant; preferred on-line consultations (Zoom, MS Teams), e-mail, hybrid forms, on-site meetings (Szczecin); Depending on the needs and capabilities of the program participant, meetings will be conducted with the use of academic tutoring tools (1st degree Academic Tutor certificate, Collegium Wratislaviense)

Frequency of meetings: 2/month

dr hab. Grażyna Piechota, prof. KAAF

Krakowska Akademia im. Andrzeja Frycza Modrzewskiego

Fields of research: political communication in social media; propaganda and disinformation; network communication of new social movements; virtual; populist communication

Number of mentees: max. 2

Language of mentoring: PL / ENG

Form of meetings: email, meetings via the ZOOM application or in person if people are interested in them (at the headquarters of KAAFAM Krakow)

Frequency of meetings: email - if necessary; ZOOM or in person - once a month

prof. dr hab. Dariusz Rott

Uniwersytet Śląski w Katowicach

Fields of research: the history of the media (especially the press and radio; biographies of Silesian journalists); academic media (especially the press); local media (Silesia and Zagłębie Dąbrowskie); journalistic rhetoric and eristics; press advocacy; the image of Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Iceland, Russia and Ukraine in Polish reports; contemporary Polish travel reportage

Number of mentees: 1-2

Language of mentoring: PL

Form of meetings: adapted to the pandemic situation and possibilities; participant of the program. Possible forms: meetings, remote, hybrid, e-mail.

Frequency of meetings: depending on the needs and abilities of the program participant (at least twice a month)

dr hab. Piotr Siuda, prof. UKW

Uniwersytet Kazimierza Wielkiego w Bydgoszczy

Fields of research: social media, internet communication, internet communities, game studies

Number of mentees: 1-2

Language of mentoring: PL / ENG; possible joint publications: preferred ENG

Form of meetings: online meetings / email. Live meetings - depending on the student's location

Frequency of meetings: once a month - depends on the progress / stages of work

ks. dr hab. Krzysztof Stępnik, prof. UKSW

Uniwersytet Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego w Warszawie

Fields of research: religious advertising, visual communication, religious communication, journalistic biography

Number of mentees: 2

Language of mentoring: PL

Form of meetings: e-mail / remote meetings (Zoom / Google Meet); also available at the UKSW campus (ul. Dewajtis 5, 01-815 Warsaw)

Frequency of meetings: once every 3-4 weeks